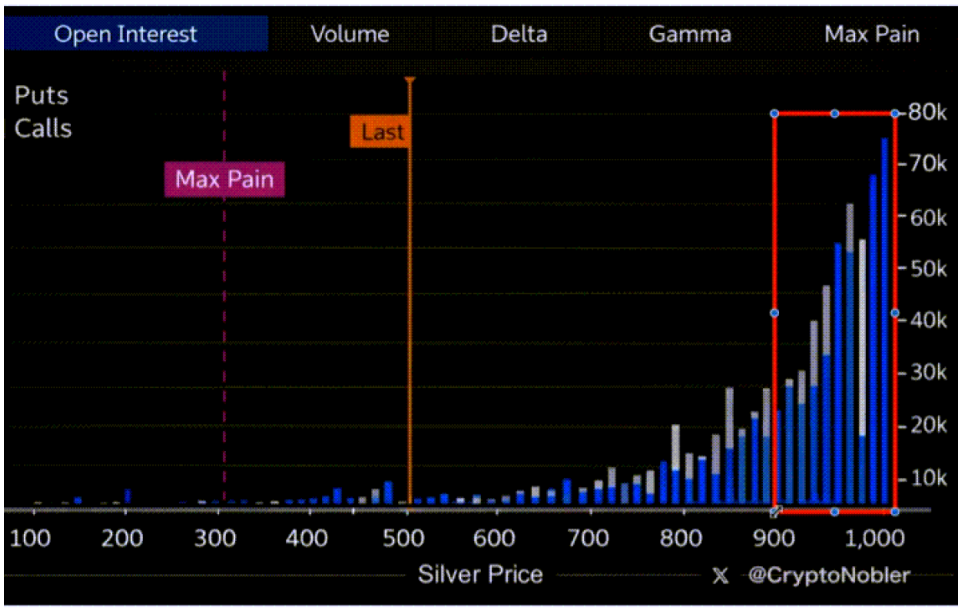
SOMETHING VERY UNUSUAL HAPPENING WITH SILVER OPTIONS

HAL TURNER | WORLD | APRIL 22, 2026 | HITS: 128



Insiders have begun buying silver options at $900-$1,000 per OUNCE for December 2026.

Meanwhile, silver is sitting at ~$80.

This means THEY KNOW THE SILVER PRICE WILL PUMP 1,200% IN JUST A FEW MONTHS.

And this is NOT retail behavior…

Let me break it down simply:

his positioning didn't show up at the highs.

It's concentrated FAR out of the money.

EN

Retail trades what's in front of them.

Smart money positions for what's coming.

Even with silver at ~$80…

Open interest is HEAVILY stacked at the $900–$1,000 PER OUNCE range.

We're talking tens of thousands of contracts clustered at the extreme end.

And here's what matters:

Max pain sits way down near ~$300.

Price is ~$80.

But the biggest positioning is nearly 15x higher.

That's NOT normal.

That's not hedging.

That's not routine positioning.

That's a tail-risk bet on a full repricing of silver.

Now connect the dots.

There is an ongoing war with Iran and global tensions are escalating fast.

This WILL impact markets.

No mainstream forecast is calling for $1,000 silver.

Yet that's exactly where size is building.

hat tells you everything.

EN

These events WILL send silver into true price discovery.

And the timing matters.

This isn't happening during peak hype.

It's building quietly, far from attention, while most people aren't even looking.

That one detail explains a lot.

Because real money doesn't chase narratives.

It builds where disbelief is highest.

So if you're wondering what this means, it's simple:

Someone with serious capital is paying for EXTREME upside in silver - from $80 per ounce right now, to $1,000. per ounce in December.

That's not speculation.

That's preparation.
